

About 6 months ago my older sister was in a car crash, while she sustained minor injuries, she unfortunately lost her baby. This has affected not only me but my entire family.

My dad got ran off the road by a semi on 36 and if he hadn't have been wearing his seat belt he would be dead.

I was in a DUI Accident and all most Die. Never Drink and drive

My mom was driving near Klamath - she hit some water that was flowing across the road & she almost lost control & went over the cliff.

I got in a wreck

but he didn't get hurt.

One of my sisters got hit by a car when she was riding home from work. She got a really bad concussion & had to stay at my house, she couldn't remember who I was or who my little bro was. She still has Memory loss, forgets things easily.

There were 5 people in the car. I was sitting in the back in the middle holding a soda. I heard my own scream and then we started spinning and everything went white. We got stuck on the right side by a Chevy truck. I couldn't remember what happened during the crash.

I was driving back from Idaho and the wheel trailer wheel broke and the truck spun out and ended up on top of the trailer.

My Dad was killed in a car accident, he was drunk driving and was being ~~chased~~ chased by the CHP. He didn't stop he just kept going... until they crashed. My mom was in the car and went through the windshield before the car flipped and landed on her... Half her face was ripped off and she had to have reconstructive surgery... she was pregnant with me... I was fine but I grew up without ever knowing my dad.

On a trip to Reno, I was with a friend and we were just noticing a bad car wreck when we ourselves crashed and landed in a creek.

I know this boy who got into a car crash and he was an athlete but now he can't walk or even talk that much because he was driving drunk.
